iCandy peach blossom and peach blossom twin iCandy offers modern parents a stylish travel solution of the highest quality and excellent design.

The peach blossom and peach blossom twin offer the ultimate flexibility for parents requiring a double mode of transport. The blossom caters for parents with a toddler and a newborn and the blossom twin for twins from birth upwards. One of the great features of the peach blossom is the option to have your newborn in a parent facing infant carrier car seat (sold seperately) whilst the toddler takes in the world facing forward. They are available in a choice of three colours; sweet pea, tomato and black jack and have all the same great features of the peach being easy to manoeuvre, all around suspension, front fixed or swivel wheels and the ultra lightweight chassis which folds quickly and easily with one hand. From birth the carrycots are suitable for overnight sleeping and come with a padded mattress and washable liner. The peach blossom and peach blossom twin can easily be used as a single mode when needed.
