PRESS RELEASE

May 2010

iCandy apple multi-mode system

iCandy offers modern parents a stylish travel solution of the highest quality and excellent design.

The apple is available as a four wheel stroller or a three wheel jogger. For parents wanting the flexibility of both options the jogger wheel can be purchased as an accessory to the stroller. For your newborn, both options have their own unique carrycots which are suitable for overnight sleeping, and with the addition of an infant carrier car seat (sold separately), the apple becomes a stylish, practical travel solution. For growing families the apple can be upgraded with the addition of the unique 'PIP' converter. This upgrade pack transforms the apple into a tandem travel system - the pear.
